Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer moving image file consists of a short, black and white clip that explicitly depicts a woman engaging in sexual activity with a man. The material is intended for the purpose of sexual arousal and is likely to have a negative effect on the development of sexual behaviour and attitudes of young viewers.

The New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 has been considered in the application of the criteria of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 to this publication. The classification places a limit on the freedom of expression, but the availability of the moving image file to children and young people is likely to be injurious to the public good. The classification is reasonable, demonstrably justifiable and the minimum required to avoid injury.
